

M'KINLEY'S TRIBUTE TO GENERAL GRANT

AN ELOQUENT ORATION AT THE TOMB.

Not a Single Untoward Incident Mars the Dedication Ceremonies—Citizens of Galena, Ill., Honor the Memory of the Great Soldier—Some Other Speeches.

New York, April 23.—Never but once in the history of the world, and never before in the history of the United States, has such a tribute been paid to the noble dead as when on Tuesday, with wondrous pageant by land and sea, the nation dedicated the tomb that now holds the body of the hero, Ulysses S. Grant.

Before the presidential party left the city to take part in the dedication ceremonies the flag-decked streets were black with people, who cheered vociferously as the great men drove by.

The solemn service of the dedication seemed to throw a strange hush over this vast throng. The president stood bareheaded in the wind. When he spoke he was heard distinctly by the 5,000 persons who stood directly in front of him.

President McKinley's tribute was as follows:

"Fellow Citizens: A great life, dedicated to the welfare of the nation, here finds its earthly coronation. Even if this day lacked the impressiveness of ceremony and was devoid of pageantry it would still be memorable, because it is the anniversary of the birth of one of the most famous and best beloved of American soldiers.

"Architecture has paid high tribute to the leaders of mankind, but never was a memorial more worthily bestowed or more gratefully accepted by a free people than the beautiful structure before which we are gathered. In marking the successful completion of this work, we have as witnesses and participants representatives of all branches of our government, the resident officials of foreign nations, the governors of states, and the sovereign people from every section of our common country, who joined in this august tribute to the soldier, patriot and citizen.

"Almost twelve years have passed since the heroic vigil ended and the brave spirit of Ulysses S. Grant fearlessly took its flight. Lincoln and Stanton had preceded him, but of the mighty captains of the war Grant was the first to be called. Sherman and Sheridan survived him, but have since joined him on the other shore. The great heroes of the civil strife on land and sea are for the most part now no more. Thomas and Hancock, Logan and McPherson, Farragut, Dupont and Porter, and a host of others have passed forever from human sight. Those remaining grow dearer to us, and from them and the memory of those who have departed generations yet unborn will draw their inspiration and gather strength for patriotic purpose.

"A great life never dies. Great deeds are imperishable; great names immortal. General Grant's services and character will continue undiminished in influence and advance in the estimation of mankind so long as liberty remains the cornerstone of free government and integrity of life the guaranty of good citizenship. Faithful and fearless as a volunteer soldier, intrepid and invincible as commander-in-chief of the armies of the Union, calm and confident as president of a reunited and strengthened nation which his genius had been instrumental in achieving, he has our homage and that of the world. "But brilliant as was his public character, we love him all the more for his home life and homely virtues. His individuality, his bearing and speech, his simple ways, had a flavor of rare and unique distinction, and his Americanism was so true and uncompromising that his name will stand for all time as the embodiment of liberty, loyalty and national unity.

"Victorious in the work which under Divine Providence he was called upon to do, clothed with almost limitless power, he was yet one of the people—patient, patriotic and just. Success did not disturb the even balance of his mind, while fame was powerless to swerve him from the path of duty. Great as he was in war, he loved peace, and told the world that honorable arbitration of differences was the best hope of civilization.

"With Washington and Lincoln, Grant has an exalted place in history and the affection of the people. To-day his memory is held in equal esteem by those whom he led to victory and by those who accepted his generous terms of peace. The veteran leaders of the blue and the gray here meet not only to honor the name of the departed Grant, but to testify to the living reality of a fraternal national spirit which has triumphed over the differences of the past and transcended the limitations of sectional lines. Its completion, which we pray God to speed, will be the nation's greatest glory.

"It is right, then, that General Grant should have a memorial commensurate with his greatness and that his last resting place should be in the city of his choice, to which he was so attached in life and of whose ties he was not forgetful even in death. Fitting, too, is it that the great soldier should sleep beside the native river on whose banks he first learned the art of war, and of which he became master and leader without a rival.

"But let us not forget the glorious distinction which the metropolis among the fair sisterhood of American cities has honored his life and memory. With all that riches and sculpture can do to render the edifice worthy of the man, upon a site unsurpassed for magnificence, has this monument been reared by New York as a perpetual record of his illustrious deeds, in the certainty that as time passes around it will assemble with gratitude and reverence and veneration men of all climes, races and nationalities.

"New York lived in her keeping the precious dust of the silent soldier; but his achievements—what he and his brave comrades wrought for mankind—are in keeping of seventy millions of American citizens, who will guard the sacred heritage forever and forevermore."

Mayor Strong accepted the monument on behalf of New York's citizens.

The oration of the day was delivered by General Horace Porter.

Surrounded by his cabinet, his generals, and his friends, President McKinley stood and reviewed the greatest military pageant ever seen in this city. There were regular soldiers, regular sailors, national guardsmen of the sea and land forces, Grand Army veterans, confederate veterans and the striplings who, in the future, may fight as gallantly as their fathers did.

Soon after this President McKinley went aboard the Dolphin amid the booming of guns and reviewed the great warships that lay in the shadow of the tomb.

At midnight all was quiet. The warships' lights no longer were reflected by the placid Hudson, and the gray tomb on the eminence above stood out boldly against the black sky, at last a fitting monument erected by a grateful nation to the soldier-president who through victories and war brought peace, and with peace brought honor.

IN MEMORY OF GRANT.

Citizens of Galena, Once His Home, Honor the Day.

Galena, Ill., April 28.—This city was in festive array Tuesday celebrating the anniversary of the birth of its most illustrious citizen—General Ulysses S. Grant. Visitors from all portions of the state as well as from many other states were in town, having come to attend the exercises in honor of the hero of the civil war, who from his home in Galena went to the front and is well remembered by its older citizens. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the ceremonies of the day opened in the Turner Hall, the largest auditorium in the city, and until late at night the festivities continued, closing with the grand annual reunion.

All the principal city streets were gayly decorated. Flags and bunting and beautiful floral decorations in front of stores and in windows made the city present a holiday appearance, and the sun shone in all its brightness upon the pretty scene. The Rev. Robert McIntyre, D. D., pastor of Grace Methodist Church, Chicago, the orator of the day, delivered the oration.

Pingree Must Stand Trial.

Lansing, Mich., April 28.—The Supreme Court Tuesday decided that Gov. Pingree must stand trial on a charge of malicious prosecution, preferred some time ago by James E. Tryon, a former secretary of the Detroit fire commission. While mayor of Detroit Pingree had Tryon arrested for conspiracy, but he was discharged on examination. Tryon then proceeded against the mayor for false imprisonment and malicious prosecution, but the trial court directed a verdict for Pingree. The Supreme Court granted a new trial of the cause, and that is how the governor is called upon to defend himself upon the charge.

THREATEN TO REVOLT AGAINST THE KING

PEOPLE OF ATHENS DEMAND A REPUBLIC.

Five Hundred Armed Men Make a Demonstration Before the Palace of King George—Opinion That the War Will Be Ended Without Further Delay.

Athens, April 28.—Popular feeling points to a revolution in favor of a republic. The citizens are greatly excited at the revelations made by former Minister Ralli as to the conduct of the campaign. Tuesday large meetings were held in Constitution square and other places and fiery harangues delivered by well-known orators in denunciation of "those who would betray Greece." The fall of the ministry is regarded as certain.

In the afternoon 500 men formed themselves into a volunteer body, forcing their way into the gunsmiths' shops, armed themselves with rifles and revolvers, and paraded the street in front of M. Ralli's residence. Several deputies addressed them, exhorting them to remain calm and to await the progress of events. Finally they proceeded to the royal palace, where, after making a demonstration, they dispersed without further disorder. The incident has made a great sensation.

MAY STOP FIGHTING.

London Paper Thinks the War Is Almost at an End.

London, April 28.—The Evening News publishes a dispatch from Athens saying the people there are frightfully incensed at the retreat of the troops. The dispatch further states that the bitterness against King George and his government is intensified by the news that the Greek army in Epirus has been ordered to suspend operations pending reconsideration of the situation by the ministers. Continuing, the dispatch says:

"Indeed, it looks probable that tomorrow will see the end of the whole business. There is reason to believe the government is contemplating the withdrawal of the Greek troops from Crete and an appeal to the powers to settle the trouble. This change upon the part of the government is due to Edhem Pasha having intimated his intention of marching upon Athens."

He was in his night clothes and had a cocked revolver in his hand. None of the chambers were emptied. The presumption is that he heard burglars in his store beneath his bedroom, came down and was shot to death.

ELECTRIC CAR IN A SLOUGH

Crashes Through a Bridge at Portland, Ore., and Three People Are Killed.

Portland, Ore., April 28.—An electric car on the Mount Tabor line jumped the track Tuesday morning at East Morrison and Eighth streets and plunged through a bridge into a slough twenty-five feet below. Three bodies have been recovered. They are: BAILEY, MISS KATHERINE. BLANCHARD, W. W., laborer. HENSON, NEWTON, 18 years old. The injured are: Butler, J. C., shoulder injured; Guthrie, Stephen, arm broken; Gaskey, William, arm broken; Howell, George, head bruised; Kiefer, J. J., motorman; Lawson, Miss Lizzie; Mattson, Albert, arm dislocated; Miller, C. C., injured internally; Ransom, William, arm broken. There were thirty-four people on the car when the accident occurred but it is now believed only three were killed. A number of others were badly bruised and cut by the glass of the car windows.

The water where the car went down was not more than five feet deep, which enabled most of the passengers to escape drowning. Had the accident occurred forty feet further ahead it is probable every person on the car would have been drowned, as the water is fifteen feet deep.

REJECT THE SUICIDE THEORY

It Is Not Believed the Loda Banker Committed Suicide.

Waukegan, Ill., April 28.—The report that John S. Sheldon, the Loda banker, had committed suicide by jumping into Lake Michigan, caused a profound sensation here, as he was a former resident of Waukegan. While it is not openly asserted, the belief exists that Sheldon may not have killed himself. Realizing that he was broken and that his affairs could not be concealed any longer, he may have departed in the hope of regaining his fortunes.

The failure of the bank of which Sheldon was the head has taken down a number of concerns at Loda. Among the assignments filed Tuesday, all by people of Loda, and all due to the bank failure, were those of Gray & Swanson, general merchandise; Nels Peterson, hardware and furniture; Bradley-Slocum Hardware Company; W. L. Kinsman, merchandise and grain; Peterson Bros., general merchandise; W. H. Bradley, personal; Edward Slocum, personal; Fannie Bradley, personal; John S. Sheldon.

Sheldon was executor for several estates and guardian for a number of minors, who have today wired Judge C. W. Raymond asking that a successor be appointed. Sheldon was also executor for the E. E. Slocum estate, representing $200,000.

To Guard Public Money.

Springfield, Ill., April 28.—Mr. Merriam called up in the house Tuesday on third reading his bill to repeal the act of 1893 authorizing the custodians of public funds to loan the same and to retain a portion of the interest thereon. Mr. Merriam spoke at length in favor of the bill, and Johnson, Stoskopf and other democrats opposed it. The previous question was ordered, and the roll call was then had on the passage of the bill. It resulted: Yeas, 77; nays, 67. Speaker Curtis declared the bill passed.

Torrens Land Bill Passed.

Springfield, Ill., April 28.—The first business done by the house Tuesday was the passage of the Torrens land bill, providing for the uniform registration of land titles. This takes the place of a somewhat similar law which was knocked out by the Supreme Court and remedies the defects of the former bill. The bill was passed by a vote of 125 to 3. It will become a law as soon as signed by the governor.

A HEAVY LOSS BY FIRE

Two Railroad Piers and Three Vessels Burn at Newport News, Va.

Newport News, Va., April 28.—Fire broke out in the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad company's pier No. 5 at an early hour Tuesday morning, and before the flames were checked damage to the extent of $2,000,000 had been done. Two of the company's immense piers were destroyed, three vessels burned to the water's edge, a tugboat destroyed and eight persons injured, some of them seriously.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company estimates its loss at $300,000, which is fully covered by insurance. The total loss, including the three ships and the cargoes, the tug Wanderer, and the merchandise in the piers, will reach $2,000,000. The insurance on the piers is carried by a large insurance syndicate.

Adopts a Conciliatory Policy.

Cape Town, April 28.—The motion introduced in the parliament of Cape Colony on April 16 urging the adoption of a policy of moderation and conciliation in the settlement of differences in the interpretation of treaties and conventions, amended to read that the ends desired would be best attained by a strict observance of the London convention and the redress of genuine grievances of the Uitlanders, and further amending deprecating the intervention of any foreign power in any dispute between the Transvaal and Great Britain, was adopted by a vote of 41 to 32. The government supporters voted with the majority, but Cecil Rhodes, the former premier, voted against it.

Shipwrecked Sailors Turn Cannibals.

St. John's, N. F., April 28.—The French fishing vessel Vaillant, Capt. Pierre, bound from St. Malo for Miquelon, struck an iceberg on the Grand banks April 16, and almost immediately foundered. She had seventy-three fishermen on board, and all took to the boats, but only one of these boats has thus far been heard from. When it left the vessel its complement was seven men. Three of them perished from exposure and hunger. The bodies of the first two were thrown overboard, but the survivors, in their desperation, resorted to cannibalism and ate the third. The boat was picked up yesterday.

FIFTY MEET DEATH AT GUTHRIE, OKA.

Indian Territory City The Scene of a Horror Today.

TIDAL WAVE SWEEPS INTO THE TOWN.

Buildings Are Washed Away, and Many People Are Drowned—The List of Victims and Estimates of the Amount of Damages Cannot Now be Had, But it is Known That Half a Hundred Lost Their Lives.

Guthrie, Oklahoma, April 28.—A wave of death swept over this town today, and scores of people are dead.

A six o'clock this morning a tidal wave came down the cottonwood valley, and struck this city with great force.

A deafening roar went up as the water crashed houses and drove people from their homes.

At the first rush every boat and bridge were swept away.

All West Guthrie is submerged and twenty of the business houses have ten feet of water in them.

The river is thirty feet above ordinary level.

Fifty lives were lost.

The wave was seven feet high and a mile long.

The work of rescue is going on, but work cannot be effectively done.

The death list cannot be completed, nor will the amount of damage be known for some days.

Keokuk, Iowa, April 28.—The Egyptian levee, protecting the Hunt drainage district, between Warsaw and Quincy, broke Tuesday at a point nine miles below Warsaw, and as a result about 25,000 acres of the richest bottom lands in the Mississippi valley were flooded and damage to the extent of many thousands of dollars caused.

This levee has stood the strain so well that practically no preparations were made for a flood in the district. The inhabitants were taken wholly unawares and the giving away of the levee caused the wildest excitement. Couriers on horseback rode through the district giving the alarm while others went to Warsaw for boats to get the people and stock out of the reach of the rapidly advancing waters.

At Gregory, Mo., the water ran through the town like a mill race. Several miles of the St. Louis, Keokuk and Northwestern track are submerged. All trains are abandoned above Quincy.

Government boats have come from St. Louis with sacks of sand to stop the break if possible. Every craft is being pushed into service. All the Missouri bottoms between this city and Quincy are overflowed about four feet. All railway communication west and south is cut off. Alexandria, Sprawls and Gregory, Mo., are inundated. Only about 100 square feet of land in Alexandria remains above the water.

Not until Monday afternoon was there much additional trouble experienced in Quincy, but so rapidly did the water rise that many of the local factories had to shut down last evening. About the largest crib of corn in this section is owned by a man named Reding, near Canton. There are 100,000 bushels in the crib, which now stands in two feet of water. Charles Leise of the Hamilton Milling company has lost 50,000 bushels of corn by the flood. A large quantity of stock has either been drowned or been left by former occupants of houses to starve. Every hour makes more trouble for the railroads. There is no telling how soon the tracks of all roads at West Quincy will have to be abandoned.

New Orleans Becomes Alarmed.

New Orleans, La., April 28.—A feeling of alarm is active and general. The wall of water has been rising to overwhelming height at Vicksburg, and all of this, as well as much of the crevasse volume, must come down to the gulf with the river here at nineteen feet above the low water; this means twenty feet. If it comes quickly the weakened banks will hardly be able to hold it. If it delays the strain may grow too great before the arrival.

Illinois Routine Legislative Doings.

Springfield, Ill., April 28.—Under suspension of the rules the house Tuesday considered Mr. Hammer's uniform text-book bill and advanced it to third reading after an unimportant amendment had been adopted. Mr. Cochran's bill giving old soldiers preference after having passed civil service examination was passed by a vote of 92 to 12.

In the senate the bill appropriating $40,000 for participation by the state in the transmississippi exposition at Omaha was amended so as to make the amount $50,000 and advanced to third reading. A number of minor bills were passed, after which the measures creating a state board of pardons and prohibiting the placing of a name on an official ballot under more than one party appellation were sent to third reading.

FACTS WITH POINTS.

Every One of These Statements Absolutely True.

Mr. A. W. Sharper, 61 Prospect St., Indianapolis, Ind., says: "Gratitude prompts me to write that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets completely cured me of Nervous Dyspepsia from which I had suffered for the last four years. I had tried many remedies without results, but am now cured and have gained in flesh, sleep well and have none but words of praise for Stuart's Tablets."

Mrs. Sarah A. Skeels, Lynville, Iowa: "It has been six months since I took Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and am fully cured. Have not had a particle of distress or difficulty since. This is in the face of the fact that I had suffered from stomach trouble for twenty-five years and was pronounced incurable by the doctors."

James Newkomes, Eau Claire, Wis., says: "Two 50 cent packages of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets did me more good than any remedy I had ever before tried. They hit the spot with me and I once more have an appetite and can eat what I please without fear of distress and bloating afterward."

Dr. Harlandson relates the case of Miss Helen Sholes, of Nashville, who was cured of dyspepsia and gained 18 pounds in weight after suffering from stomach trouble for eight years. The doctor uses them in all stomach troubles because they are not a secret patent medicine, but contain pure pepsin, Diastase, fruit acids and valuable digestives, which digest the food whether the stomach works or not, gives it the needed rest and a cure is the natural result.

Dr. Jennison says nine-tenths of disease is caused by indigestion and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest and best cure, because they are not a secret patent medicine, but contain the valuable digestive principles needed by every weak stomach and a whole box would not hurt a child, being absolutely harmless.

All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50 cents per package.

Send to Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., for little book on symptoms and treatment of stomach troubles.

500 MUSK RAT SKINS HERE.

Big Shipment To Be Sent to St. Paul Soon.

Five hundred musk rat skins are now stored at the American Express office ready for shipment to a St. Paul fur house. These skins were mostly bought in this county and the greater portion of them were obtained by trappers along the shores of Lake Koshkonong. At St. Paul these furs are put through many different processes and are used for many different purposes. Not a few find them selves back to this state "under assumed names."

A CURIOUS FIND IN IOWA.

Party from the Smithsonian Institution Investigates the Oddity.

Interest in the archaeological discovery near Fairfield, Jefferson county, Iowa, has intensified since the report of the professor on antiquities of the Ohio university has been received stating that the relic is undoubtedly of Aztec origin, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. A party of scientists from the Smithsonian institution is now on its way to gather additional data to aid in determining its origin. The find was made September 9, 1896. The block of wood in which the records were inclosed is about the size of a common brick. The outside of this box was coated with wax or gum of some kind, which not only fastened the pieces together, but made the receptacle within practically water and air tight. After being coated, the blocks had been held over a fire that the gum might be melted and evenly distributed, and the block is not only covered with soot but it is also slightly charred. The wood, possibly a bit of birch, is excellently preserved. The outer wrapping of bark is purplish black, indicating that it had been discolored by smoke. That on which the characters are written is as thin as a bit of printing paper of this day, a pinkish yellow, as fresh, apparently, as the day it was put into the ground. The characters are written in red ink, possibly the juice of some fruit or plant. The color is bright and the work neat, that of an expert. The bark is not that of our common birch, but more like that which is used by the Indians farther north. The wax with which the bits of wood were sealed resembles very much dark sealing-wax of these days, melts very readily and gives out a faint odor. The find was made under the stump of a tree, two or three feet deep. Workmen think the tree must have been fifty years old.

IN VOLUNTARY ASSIGNMENTS

An Important Amendment to Wisconsin's Insolvency Laws.

The assignment laws of Wisconsin have been amended at the instance of the Milwaukee Credit Men's association, and the law was signed by the governor last Saturday. The important changes provide that where preferences exist, they shall be declared void, and the assignment valid. Courts are authorized to amend assignments, inventions and all papers and documents relating to assignments, so as to carry out the intent of the assignor and whenever necessary are empowered to appoint a receiver to administer the assets for the benefit of all creditors. Provision is also made for allowing a debtor, whose property has been seized under an execution or writ of attachment, to make an assignment within ten days thereafter, which results in dissolving the levy upon his property, which is thereupon turned over to an assignee or receiver and distributed pro rata among all the creditors.

Another important change in the law provides for what is known as involuntary assignment. Under the provision of this section two or more creditors of an insolvent debtor, under certain conditions may apply to a court and have attachments dissolved, a receiver appointed to take charge of and distribute the proceeds pro rata among the creditors.

The prohibition of preferences and the involuntary assignment features of this act are the prominent features of the Torrens bankruptcy bill which has been before congress for several years.

SERIOUS DANGER

Threatens every man, woman or child living in a region of country where fever and ague is prevalent, since the germs of malarial disease are inhaled from the air and swallowed from the water of such a region. Medical safeguard is absolutely necessary to nullify the danger. As a means of fortifying and acclimating the system so as to be able to resist the malarial poison, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is comparatively the best and most popular. Irregularities of the stomach, liver and bowels encourage malaria, but these are speedily rectified by the Bitters. The functions of digestion and secretion are assisted by its use, and a vigorous as well as regular condition of the system promoted by it. Constitution and physique are thus defended against the inroads of malaria by this matchless preventive, which is also a certain and thorough remedy in the worst cases of intermittent and remittent fevers.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1710—Thomas Betterton, famous actor, died.
1738—James Monroe, first president, born in Westmoreland county, Va.; died 1831.
President Monroe in his message of 1823 declared that the American continents must thenceforth not be considered subjects for colonization by European powers, and that European interference with governments in America which declared their independence of European control would be regarded as unfriendly to the United States. This is the original "Monroe doctrine." Not only the then existing republics, but republics which might spring up from European colonies, were to be included in the policy.
1847—The emigrant ship Exmouth wrecked on the island of Islay; 240 people drowned.
1875—Great fire at Oshkosh, Wis.; a square mile burned over; loss, $2,000,000.
1888—A cyclone destroyed the town of Cisco, Tex.; 30 people killed, 40 injured.
1894—The famous old St. Charles hotel burned in New Orleans. Two towns in Venezuela destroyed by an earthquake.

OSHKOSH MAKES A CUT.

Oshkosh feels the retrenchment fever and the common council has adopted a salary list ranging from 20 to 50 per cent. lower than the last. Clerk, treasurer and comptroller will receive $1,350 per annum. The former figure was $1,800. The chiefs of the police and fire departments were voted $960, as against $1,200 the past two years. Policemen and firemen were cut from $60 a month to $50. A loan of $75,000 was ordered. At the next meeting the fire department will be reduced from thirty-two men to twenty-four and the police department from fifteen to five. There have been unmistakable evidences of reform in the northern part of the state this spring, but when the spirit of retrenchment strikes common councils there is nothing that may not be expected.

PUBLISH THE NAMES.

The Milwaukee County board of supervisors have adopted a plan that might save considerable money in Rock county. Hereafter the board will publish the names of all the signers of applications for aid from the county as well as the names of those who receive aid. Under the existing conditions any man can secure the signatures of two tax payers and be placed on the county poor list, but with the names of the signers published signatures can not be secured so easily.

State capitol employees want Governor Scofield to veto the bill reducing salaries. A strong Madison delegation will argue along that line. Madison people, feeling that the state offices have been their especial property for the last sixty years, do not see why the rest of the state should interfere.

Wisconsin veterans who were displaced by democrats during the Cleveland administration, are being put back as fast as the changes can be made. Civil service rules were never intended to cover the dismissal of old soldiers to make places for youngsters and ward workers.

Mr. Wilson, whose tariff bill wrought so much mischief, ought to be the last man in the world to throw stones at the Dingley tariff bill, even if a rich free trade editor does pay him a big price for doing so.

Green Bay, Wausau and Appleton are after the new state reformatory with a fervor that promises to make the fight for the state school for feeble-minded lack like a Quaker meeting.

We believe that seven-eighths of the republican party favors curtailing the extensions of the civil service rules made by Mr. Cleveland to keep democrats in responsible offices.

Some men who have been honored by the republican party should, for having placed their personal interests above those of the party, be shown that the party can also punish.

The democrats of the house do not agree any better when in a minority than they did when a majority. The democratic party has lost even its power of cohesive opposition.

Dave Hill is showing by his bid for the support of the free whisky seven-days-a-week element that he knows who controls the democratic party.

A man may be made drunk with too much power, and he is often a more dangerous individual than he who is drunk from liquor drunk.

Shot and shell seldom fails to prove an effective remedy for even the most aggravated cases of war fever.

THE VALLEY OF THE SHADOW.

James Tice.

James Tice, one of the pioneers of this city, died at his home 204 Locust street, at 5:30 o'clock last evening, aged seventy-six years.

Mr. Tice was one of the best men of the city. For many years he has been engaged in the draying business, and could be found at his "stand" at all times during business hours, no matter whether winter's blasts were chilling, or summer's heat oppressive. He attended to his business regularly until his health failed, regardless of the fact that it was not necessary that he do manual labor. He was a man of many good qualities, and was popular with all. He belonged to the Methodist church, and was an Odd Fellow.

Mr. Tice was a native of New Jersey. He went west during the exciting time of the "gold fever," but soon returned to this city, where he has since resided.

Four weeks ago he was taken ill with the grip, and during the last ten days, had not been able to take any nourishment. So death came as a relief from his sufferings. Besides a widow Mr. Tice leaves a stepdaughter, Mrs. Charles W. Schwartz of North street.

The funeral will be held from the house Thursday afternoon at 2:30. Rev. H. W. Thompson assisted by Rev. Dr. M. G. Hodge will conduct the services and the funeral will be in charge of the Odd Fellows.

Funeral of Miss Gower.

The funeral of Miss Hattie Louverna Gower was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home at 162 Pearl street. Many of her young friends were present, the fifth grade of the Washington school of which the deceased was a member, attending in a body, while the flag at half mast floated over the school. The interment was in Oak Hill cemetery, and the pall bearers were Edwin Reeder, Miles Barnes, Ralph Zader and Charles Nott.

Margaret Halfmann.

Margaret Halfmann aged six weeks died last evening at 7:45 o'clock at the Emmet street home of her parents. Services, conducted by Rev. E. H. Pence, of the Presbyterian church, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock and the interment was in Oak Hill cemetery.

A Janesville Physician Honored.

The dean of the American Medical College of St. Louis, Mo., acting under the instructions of the board of trustees has written to Dr. E. M. McPherson of this city and offered him the professorship on diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat. The position was offered him once before in 1888 at which time he was holding a like professorship in a leading medical college in Cincinnati. Dr. McPherson came here to make Janesville his permanent home, and as he is building up a large practice in this city there is no probability of his leaving here. While he appreciates the honor he has declined the offer a second time.

A Business Change.

Henry M. Edwards who has been a member of the firm of A. Richardson Shoe Co. for the past five years will sever his connections with that concern July 1st. He has not fully decided on his future course but has taken three flattering offers under consideration, two as representative of large manufacturers on the road and one as manager of a shoe store in another city. Mr. Edwards has many warm friends in the city, who will regret to hear of his intended change in business.

TWO MEN ARE SENT TO WAUPUN CELLS

W. H. JARVIS GETS FIVE-YEAR SENTENCE.

Pleads Guilty to the Charge of Horse-stealing, and Threatens To Return and Get Even with the Men Who Caused His Arrest—Frank Smith Got One Year.

"After I serve out that five years sentence I will come right back to this town and get even with a few people. They could just as well have given me two years as five."

So spoke Henry William Jarvis, the horse thief, as he was being taken to jail this morning, by Turnkey Samuel Brown after receiving his sentence.

Jarvis was charged with stealing a horse and buggy, in this city, belonging to E. W. Fisher. He pleaded guilty this morning, and was sentenced to five years in state prison.

When Jarvis appeared in court this morning Attorney John Cunningham, in his behalf, made a plea, stating that the prisoner was not very bright, and that he was considered at times to be a "little off." Jarvis listened attentively, and nervously pulled at his felt hat.

When Jarvis enters the prison at Waupun this afternoon it will not be for the first time and he will need no introduction to the keepers. In 1892 he was sentenced from this city by Judge Patterson to five years for forging a note for $150 on a bank at Milton.

Smith Gets One Year

Frank Smith, who was charged with being connected with the burglarizing of the general store of Stebbins & Stebbins, at Cokesville, also pleaded guilty to the charge of receiving stolen goods valued at less than $100. He was then sentenced to one year in state prison, the first two days to be spent in solitary confinement.

Both men in charge of Sheriff Acheson, left on the noon train for Waupun.

Frank Smith or "Lemons," as he is known by all who serve one year, is said to be "an all around crook," and has served time in the Michigan penitentiary. Officer W. H. Appleby caught "Lemons" soon after the robbery and much of the stolen property was located.

CUPID'S PLANS CONSUMED.

Boyes-Brooks.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon a quiet, but impressive, wedding was solemnized at 212 North Bluff street. The contracting parties were Miss Pearl Brooks and John W. Boyes.

The bride is the estimable daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Brooks. She is an accomplished young lady, of a winsome disposition, and is exceedingly popular.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Boyes, and is employed as salesman for Bort, Bailey & Co. In a business way he is ambitious, and ever pushing to the front. Personally, he is esteemed by all as a young man of sterling qualities.

The ceremony was performed under a beautiful canopy of flowers and evergreen. Rev. H. W. Thompson knotted the matrimonial tie uniting two hearts, two hands and two lives. Miss Maud Miller, of Harvard, Ill., acted as bridesmaid, while Will R. Hotchkiss, of Brodhead, officiated as groomsmen.

The bride was attired in a very light dove serge with trimmings of white chiffon and pearl and carried a bunch of roses.

After congratulations the company composed of about thirty relatives and near friends, sat down to a bountiful wedding feast. Many and useful presents were bestowed upon the happy couple. Mr. and Mrs. Boyes will at once take possession of their home at No. 11 Hickory street.

The guests from out of town were: George Mills, of Greenwood, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Morse, of Woodstock, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Helms Hertridge, of Big Foot, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Green and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mills of Beloit; Miss Myrtle Brooks of Walworth; Miss Lillie Brooks of Alden, Ill.; and W. R. Hotchkiss, editor of the Brodhead Register.

Rehberg-Lovejoy.

Amos Rehberg, head clerk for Brown Bros., the shoemen, and Miss Grace Lovejoy, daughter of Mrs. Emma P. Lovejoy, were married last evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, 207 South Academy street, Rev. Dr. M. G. Hodge performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Rehberg will reside at 106 Pearl street, where they will be at home after May 10. Their many friends will wish them much joy.

THIEF IS NOW BUSY SPENDING HIS $14

THE LONG MAN WILL SOON BE SHORT.

He Tried To Enter William Mitchell's House on Milton Avenue, Before He Visited Dutton's and Clark's, But Got the Parlor Window Only Half Open.

Third ward people have locked all their doors and nailed their windows since Tuesday morning's house-breaking. As for the man who made the trouble he is still at large. He was described as rather a long man but as he got only $14 out of the job he is likely to be short before the end of the week. He is believed by the police to live in this city, but the nature of his plunder makes it hard to locate him.

Another attempt was reported to the police today. It was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell on Milton avenue, a few minutes before 2:30 Tuesday morning, so was very likely the first of the series. Mrs. Mitchell slept on a folding bed in the front parlor that night and the window forced by the burglar was within six feet of her head. In spite of this she was not aroused. Will E. Mitchell, sleeping in the room overhead, heard a grating sound and threw open his window. He could see nothing of the thief, having jumped around the corner out of sight. Mr. Mitchell went down stairs and found the front window in the parlor had been pried up about six inches. His mother was asleep with her head toward the window and he called her twice before she awoke.

When it became light it was seen that a chisel had been used to pry up the sash, and the oak beading was marred and broken.

It is thought that the thief may have expected to find considerable money in the house. Mr. Mitchell having delivered a crop of tobacco on Monday. The leaf belonged to a neighbor, however, and the money had been turned over to the owner.

"I wouldn't object to burglars so much," said Mr. Mitchell today, "only I want them to stop coming in at parlor windows."

A SAD LIFE STORY ENDS AT MENDOTA

PATHETIC TALE OF PAUL JACKMAN'S EXISTENCE.

THE NATIONAL GAME.

SOME NOTES AND COMMENT ON CURRENT EVENTS.

Brooklyn Makes the Largest Cash Offer Ever Recorded—The Fisher Case Decided in Favor of Mobile—The Texas League—Sunday Games.

THE Brooklyn club has started the base ball world by the largest cash offer ever yet made for a base ball club. On March 12 President Byrne and Treasurer Abell made an attempt to purchase the Cleveland team outright by offering $100,000 to President Robinson. The latter took the matter under consideration, but later decided not to sell his ball team. President Byrne said, in speaking about the matter: "Realizing that there is some opposition to Sunday ball playing in Cleveland, and having heard that Mr. Robinson might transfer his splendid ball team to some other city unless he could play games on the Sabbath, the Brooklyn club has decided to get in the first bid for one of the best base ball plants of the major league. In behalf of Mr. Abell and some friends, I have informed Mr. Robinson that we will give $100,000 in cash for the Cleveland club, lock, stock and barrel. We make this offer for the very good reason that we feel confident of realizing at least 50 per cent of our investment in one year. The fact that we are going to play 25 cent ball in Brooklyn has received widespread commendation from our patrons, and, with new grounds and a strong team, we hope to give general satisfaction. Mr. Robinson has only to say the word, and we will have Tebeau and his men playing here to bigger crowds than ever before in the history of the game."

The Texas League.

The Texas League held its annual spring meeting recently at Fort Worth. President Heurman occupied the chair, and the following delegates were present: John J. McCloskey, Dallas; John L. and W. H. Ward, Fort Worth; Mr. Dermody, Galveston, with proxy from Austin; Messrs. Toule and Reed, Houston; Mr. Hines, San Antonio. Abner Powell was there in the interest of New Orleans and Shreveport, La., for admission to membership; L. L. Manghes represented Sherman and Denison, and J. S. Patrick advanced Paris' claims for admission. Mr. Powell addressed the meeting in the interest of New Orleans and Shreveport. He stated that he was authorized to guarantee $75 per game to all visiting clubs at New Orleans and $60 at Shreveport. The Sherman-Denison and Paris representatives had evidently decided to make a showing, and brought a good delegation with them to help push things along. After hearing the arguments in favor of the various cities that were applicants for membership, it was decided that, owing to the long jump from Texas, Shreveport and New Orleans were not as available as Sherman-Denison and Paris, and the latter towns were admitted to membership. By unanimous vote the Reach ball was adopted. Houston was awarded the pennant for 1896. The president was ordered to remit protection money for Class C under the National agreement, and to draw on the local clubs for the money. The board of directors consist of the president and one member from each of the eight clubs.

William Brandt.

the clever young pitcher whom the Philadelphia club has signed for this season, was born in Chambersburg, Pa., on October 10, 1876. He started his career there as an amateur player in the season of 1893, pitching good ball from the start. Many of the leading amateur clubs of the state faced him, and soon learned that they could do nothing with him. In 1894 he played with Hagerstown, Md., in the Cumberland Valley league, and during the season of 1895-96 he filled the box for Portsmouth, of the Virginia State league, making a most excellent record.

The Fisher Case.

The National Board of Arbitration has rendered its decision in the Newton Fisher case, who was claimed by the Detroit club, of the Western league, but was awarded to the Mobile club. Newton Fisher played the season of 1895 with the Mobile club, and was regularly reserved for 1896 by that club. During the fall of 1895 the Detroit club approached the player and actually secured his name to a contract for 1896 on Dec. 12, 1895. Fisher afterwards appealed to the Board of Release from reservation by Mobile, which was dismissed by the president of this board and the reservation of Mobile sustained on April 11, 1896. Fisher played the season of 1896 with Mobile, which closed Aug. 16, and then joined the Detroit club, and played with them until the close of the Western league season. The player's name appeared upon the reserve list of both clubs, and was duly published by the secretary of the board.

On Dec. 18, 1896, the president of the Mobile club entered a protest against the reservation of the player by Detroit. This was referred to the Detroit club for answer, and President Van Derbeck stated in several communications that he based his claim to the player upon an agreement with Manager Cushman, of Mobile, dated April 6, 1896, and that he was endeavoring to locate Mr. Cushman, who is traveling in the interests of some concern, and secure his statement of the transaction. After a long delay, during which the Mobile club filed in evidence several communications addressed to them from the president and manager of the Detroit club, Mr. Van Derbeck sent his affidavit and said that he was unable to get the testimony of Mr. Cushman, and he would not ask the board to wait any longer. This was received about Feb. 9, and is as follows: "A deal was made April 6, 1896, at Gerdes Hotel, Cincinnati, O., between C. H. Cushman, then manager Mobile club, and myself, whereby H. Schmidt and Jos. Lohbeck, of the Detroit club, was to be the property of the Mobile club in exchange for Lew Whistler and N. Fisher. Fisher was to be the property of the Detroit club at the close of the season of 1896. Whistler was to join the Detroit club immediately and did so."

Both parties having rested their cases the president of the board decided the case Feb. 11, 1897.

Pitcher Tigemeier.

Frank Tigemeier, one of the pitchers of the champion Minneapolis team, of the Western League, was born April 25, 1873, at St. Louis, Mo., and first gained renown as the premier pitcher of the Sporting News team, of the Mound City, in 1893. His success led to his engagement with the Milwaukee club, of the Western league, in 1894. Illness, however, interfered with his effectiveness, and he was released by the club. He finished the season with the Peoria club, of the Western association, participating in thirty-two championship games with the latter. He pitched a game for the Philadelphia against the St. Louis team, at Sportsman's Park, St. Louis, in September of that year. In 1895 he was with the Des Moines club, of the Western association, participating in forty-six championship games, and ranked third in the official fielding averages of that organization. He began the season of 1896 with the Des Moines team, and after participating in twenty-two championship games he was transferred to the Minneapolis team, of the Western league, participating in seventeen championship games with the latter, and ranking well up in the official fielding averages. Tigemeier pitched some remarkably clever games during last season, but the most noteworthy one was the holding the heavy hitting Indianapolis team down to five safe hits, and preventing them from scoring a run. He certainly gives promise to a very bright future.

FRANK TIGEMEIER.

Sunday Baseball at Kansas City.

The agitation in regard to Sunday ball playing in Kansas City, Mo., has about died out, and although the bill prohibiting the same in Missouri has passed the house, still it is conceded that it will be killed in the senate. The Western League schedule is very kind to Kansas City, giving it twelve Sunday games, including Decoration Day and July 4, at home. Manager Manning of the Kansas City team has written Captain Carney to leave Boston on March 18, and to bring with him the Eastern players. The first game in Kansas City will be on March 27, between St. Joseph and Kansas City.

WOMAN'S WORLD.

SUCCESS ACHIEVED BY A YOUNG
SONG WRITER AND COMPOSER.Advantages of Spinster Homes—Defeated by the Women—Woman Protecting Woman—Taxation and the Suffrage—A Place For Dress Waists.

Myra Augur Chisholm, the young composer, who has within a few months sprung into such prominence, is a Chicago girl, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Chisholm. The father, James Chisholm, one of the oldest of Chicago journalists, has held positions on all of the leading papers of the city. He is a graceful writer, with strong poetic and artistic instincts.

A story is told which indicates his tendencies. He had been induced to join a party of gentlemen and ladies to witness the races. The grand stand was crowded and enthusiastic, but Chisholm was watching the clouds, which had a beautiful appearance. When the horses were coming home, the crowd cheered and cheered, but he was still sky gazing. His wife, much excited over the race, grasped his arm and said, "Wasn't it grand, Jim?" "Yes," he replied calmly, "the glinting of the sun on those great rolling masses of white and black clouds makes the most gorgeous of spectacles. Gorgeous rather than grand."

Mrs. Chisholm has written much for the press and was considered one of the best art critics in Chicago.

The only daughter, Myra, has had no special musical training, and therefore is not a composer "to the manner born." Her tunes and melodies are hummed and then played on the piano and changed until they suit her fancy. Then she plays the air, and it is taken down in musical shorthand and written out by an educated musician for the printer.

At an early age Myra rhymed. When about 7 years of age, she printed out in a little album something which ran along like prose, but on reading was found to have both measure and rhyme. Her first printed poem appeared in a Hinsdale paper and was copied into the Chicago Evening Journal and many eastern papers.

Miss Chisholm is slight in figure, her hair is light brown, with a glint of gold, and inclined to fall upon her high, broad forehead in little rings. Her eyes are blue and large and inclined to seriousness rather than to mirth. She is retiring in manner and simple in dress, but always attracts notice, particularly at the Woman's Press League of Chicago, which she attends in company with her mother. Her ambition now tends toward a volume of stories and verses for children, but her success in musical composition leads her friends to hope that she may have a thorough musical education.—Banner of Gold.

Spinster Homes.

A hundred causes have been at work to make these homes possible. First of all there had to come among both men and women complete submission to the fact that all the women of one generation could not marry, there not being men enough to go round, and polygamy having ceased to exist as a fashionable institution. Then there had to follow a conviction, which took a long time to grow, that those women who seemed to have been left quite out in the cold when marriages were settled might have staid out of their free wills, and that therefore they were not to be judged as those who had been tried and found wanting. But the most potent of all causes lay in new conceptions of what individuality might mean—that individuality which is irrespective of privilege and independent of tie and condition—with a growing belief in the necessity for the development of this individuality and the right of its free expression. Through all the upheavals of homes and societies which have sometimes alarmed us a recognition of what this involves for women, as for men, has been slowly born. The fact of her being married or unmarried weighs little if a woman be equipped in every way for the part she is to play in life.

In a home of her own the spinster gains both the table and the fireside. When presiding over the one or welcoming to the other, she acquires as hostess a certain dignity and sureness of position which once were supposed to belong only to her married sisters. She becomes, in fact, the dispenser, and in giving she gets her own independence, for there is more in giving, even in the way of hospitality, than we altogether know.

For the working spinster, too, there is another invaluable gain—she gets a place in which to conceal her make-shifts and poverties, all her ups and downs of fortune.

Your possessions, too, will grow. It is a law of life that never fails, that to the things that one has others will always be added. Your possessions will grow also by the hundred unexpected and never failing kindnesses of friends—those kindnesses which are constant factors in all success, and which help to make the richness of all lives. In a material way you will be better off, though you may have spent more money and expended more strength. Your place in life, too, will be better established. You will have a greater number of ties, as well as a recognized position. You will have had greater opportunities for helping other people and find yourself in every way better equipped for all emergencies.—Harper's Bazar.

Defeated by the Women.

B. L. Short, city clerk of Kansas City, Kan., who was a candidate before the Republican primary election for mayor of that city, was beaten in the race on account of a love affair.

Mr. Short has been city clerk for six years and is known as a good official. Many expected him to win easily.

But he didn't. The women beat him. They voted almost solidly against him, and they did it because of his fickleness in love.

The "crime" for which the women voted against Short was a unique one. It seems that he had been attentive to Miss Sadie Parsons for over 12 years and had been engaged to marry her. According to her story, they were to have been married last fall. Mr. Short called on her one evening, and they talked over their engagement and had the date fixed. The second evening thereafter Mr. Short was quietly married to Mrs. Grace Firestone, who had been divorced from her first husband.

The first intimation Miss Parsons received of her lover's unfaithfulness was from a published notice of the marriage. She was almost beside herself with grief at Short's unfaithfulness and told her story without reluctance.

It proved splendid campaign material for Mr. Short's opponents. The women began talking of it as soon as Short's candidacy was mentioned and did not let up until the polls closed. It proved particularly effective among 120 of Miss Parsons' teacher friends, and it is said they voted solidly against Short. Thirty-five more votes would have elected Short if he could have secured them.

Never in the history of Kansas City, Kan., have the women shown so much interest in an election as they did in this one. The whole feminine population was aroused. Many women went about in hacks and buggies and hauled other women to the polls and urged them not to vote for Short.

The defeat of Short opens up a new feature in the women's suffrage female voting scheme. It drags a new element into the political arena and adds more uncertainty to the already doubtful career of the man in politics. If every candidate is opposed by his slighted sweethearts, the path of the would-be officeholder will be a thorny one, indeed, and, as one of the men said yesterday: "It all comes of trusting the women with something that few men can handle properly—the ballot. We'll regret the day we gave it to 'em more than once."—Kansas City Cor. Chicago Inter Ocean.

Woman Protecting Woman.

It was a windy night, with the rain falling in torrents. "Spectator" of the New York Outlook was one of five passengers in a Third avenue cable car going down town. It was half past 6 in the evening. The other passengers were two women and two children, one a baby such as the "Spectator" has heard his women friends call a "long baby," meaning one in a long dress. The other child could just walk. The mother was a small, half starved, discouraged looking woman. The other woman passenger was strong and well dressed. The poor woman motioned for the car to stop as it approached the bridge. The conductor immediately brought the car to a stop north of the bridge road, over which trucks and carts were passing in an almost uninterrupted line, with a like procession crossing diagonally across the tracks toward the south roadway. The rain was falling in torrents, the confusion of men, horses, vehicles, bewildering. The mother of the two babies gave a despairing glance out of the window and rose. Immediately the well dressed woman rose to her feet, and with a commanding gesture said, "Sit down!" then to the conductor, "Stop at the bridge, please."

Aggressively impudent, the conductor responded, "This is the bridge."

"I beg your pardon, this is not the bridge. Stop at the crossing."

As she said this the woman looked pointedly at the conductor's number and took out her notebook and pencil. "I am not doing this for myself, but for that woman. I can get through this crowd, she cannot. To me your uniform means service, to her authority. Stop this car at the crossing to the bridge."

The conductor pulled the bell with a muttered oath.

"Have you a wife and children?" was asked softly. "Treat that woman as you would want your own wife treated."

The car stopped at the crossing, and the "Spectator" occupied the car alone. There are battles to be fought to secure the rights of the people that demand the courage of recognized war.

Taxation and the Suffrage.

At the legislative hearing given in Connecticut on woman suffrage Judge Hooker recalled the fact that for many years he and his friends had appealed to the legislature of Connecticut to grant suffrage to colored men and had met with "contemptuous refusal." They then petitioned that colored people should not be taxed, since they were not represented. This was conceded, and from 1844 to 1871 the real and personal property of colored persons in Connecticut was exempted from taxation. Judge Hooker read a letter written in 1874 by the late Amos A. Lawrence of Massachusetts to Abby Smith, a Connecticut woman who had allowed her property to be sold for taxes as a protest against taxation without representation. Mr. Lawrence wrote:

MY DEAR MADAM—Your action will be highly beneficial in bringing the subject to public notice and in leading to the correction of a great injustice. The taxation of the property of women without allowing them any representation, even in town affairs, is so unfair that it seems only necessary to bring it to public view to make it odious and to bring about a change. Your case has its parallel in every township of New England. In the town

Americans are the most inventive people on earth. To them have been issued nearly 600,000 patents, or more than one-third of all the patents issued in the world. No discovery of modern years has been of greater benefit to mankind than Chamberlain's Cough, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or has done more to relieve pain and suffering. J. W. Vaughn, of Oakton Ky., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family for several years, and find it to be the best medicine I ever used for cramps in the stomach and bowels. For sale at C. D. Stevens' Pharmacy, corner Main and Milwaukee streets."

Mrs. A. Inveen, residing at 720 Henry street, Alton, Ill., suffered with sciatic rheumatism for over eight months. She doctored for it nearly the whole of this time, using various remedies recommended by friends, and was treated by the physicians, but received no relief. She then used one and a half bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which effected a complete cure. This is published at her request as she wants others similarly afflicted to know what cured her. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale at C. D. Stevens' Pharmacy, corner Main and Milwaukee streets.

Two years ago, R. J. Warren, a druggist at Pleasant Brook, N. Y., bought a small supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sums up the result as follows: "At that time the goods were unknown in this section; today Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a household word." It is the same in hundreds of communities. Wherever the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy become known the people will have nothing else. For sale at C. D. Stevens' Pharmacy, corner Main and Milwaukee streets.
